I. DEFINITIONS

“Postincarceration supervision” means a one (1) year period of supervision in the community following release from incarceration upon expiration of sentence or completion of parole pursuant to KRS 532.400.

II. POLICY and PROCEDURE

- A. Offenders on postincarceration supervision shall be handled in the same manner as parole cases.
- B. The expiration date for postincarceration supervision offenders shall be one year after their release.
- C. If an offender on postincarceration supervision violates the conditions of supervision, the offender may be subject to graduated sanctions or may be returned to the parole board for violation proceedings. The officer shall consider the nature of the violation and that the offender is not subject to re-release under postincarceration supervision. Violations shall be reviewed with a supervisor.
- D. Violations of supervision shall be subject to CPP 27-15-01 (Investigating and Reporting Violations and Unusual Incidents) and CPP 27-15-03 (Graduated Sanctions and Discretionary Detention).
- E. Violations shall be processed as parole offenders utilizing CPP 27-18-01 (Probation and Parole Issuance of Detainer or Warrant) and CPP 27-19-01 (Preliminary Revocation Hearing).
- F. For offenders subject to sex offender postincarceration supervision pursuant to KRS 532.043 and KRS 532.060, refer to CPP 27-30-02 (Sex Offender Supervision).
